Conversation Hour 9 a.m. / Sunday Services 10 a.m.

Jan. 6 “Universalism and the Sea” UUCP Member Rob Pallme
Universalism is part of our faith. This presentation will explore how it was formed and crossed the ocean from England, taking root in the seafaring town of Gloucester, Massachusetts about the time of the Revolution. It's time to put away our holiday decorations after the service. The more folks we have, the quicker we'll finish, so please stay and help 'undock the halls' with us!

Jan. 13 “Holding On and Letting Go” Rev. Alice Syltie
The beginning of a New Year seems always to invite thoughts of what to embrace and what to leave behind. In doing so, we often look to community and those we admire for inspiration. As we look ahead to 2019, we will reflect on how community supports us in reaching our greatest potential. For further contemplation of the topic, please join me for a Second Hour after the service to consider the question “What does it mean to be a people of possibility?” See article on page 2 for more information.

Jan. 20 “Letter From a Birmingham Jail: MLK”
Scott Satterwhite, UUCP Member, educator, writer, activist and (non-profit) business co-owner. He was presented with the 2018 Public Citizen of the Year awards from the National Association of Social Workers, at both the local and state levels. Scott will speak about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s well-known letter, sometimes titled, “The Negro is Your Brother,” focusing on what prompted the letter and who Dr. King hoped to reach with the message he wrote while he was imprisoned in Birmingham for participating in nonviolent demonstrations against segregation.

Jan. 27 “Light in the Midst of Winter” Carole Eagleheart and Rev. Alice Syltie
You won't want to miss this very special Sunday Service, as we welcome our good friend, Carole Eagleheart. Carole is a UU musician, workshop and worship leader, artist and activist. Her song, Standing Before Us, has become the theme song for work to reclaim UU women's heritage. In Ireland there is a flame that was kept alive for 1,000 years. It was the fire of Brigid, a goddess who later was honored as a saint. Carole Eagleheart will tell tales of Brigid and help explore what this flame can mean to us as Unitarian Universalists.

Feb. 3 “SOUPer Sunday!” February 3 is Super Bowl Sunday, and SOUPer Sunday as well! The Finance Team and CRE kids have a special service planned to kick off our annual budget drive, followed by a potluck lunch featuring several kinds of soup with all the fixings. As a celebration of this day, we ask the congregation to bring canned goods to the service to be donated to Manna Food Pantry. See more info in upcoming Announcements and Weekly Emails.

From Our Minister, Rev. Alice Syltie

January is a threshold month. The first month of a new year invites us to consider what we have that we need, and what we might be better off without. Our Unitarian Universalist faith opens us to potential and possibility. Rather than making new rules and resolutions, what might happen if we open ourselves to possibilities unfolding before us? This month, Unitarian Universalists exploring questions within the Soul Matters theme based ministry program are asking the question, “What does it mean to be a people of possibility?”

The exploration might involve the practice of “seeking a word.” Catholics describe a time in the third and fourth centuries when monk-like hermits, living in the desert, were sought out for guidance and wisdom. These wise “desert mothers and fathers,” we are told, would offer people a word or a phrase to ponder for weeks, years, even a lifetime. A deliberate and conscious focus on the word was believed to have the power to create possibilities in us and in the world. We may not wish to wander the desert in search of the wise person to give us a word. However, we might find it enlightening to search our own minds and hearts for a word that opens us to new insights or prospects.

As my life has brought many changes in the last few years, I have decided to choose the word Embrace. Immediately I am thinking of how to look at the past, present and future through the lens of Embrace. If this practice sounds interesting to you, I invite you to join me and others in the Soul Matters Sharing Circle, in finding a word that calls to you. The word you choose is simply an invitation to open yourself to new ways. As one writer puts it, the words are about deepening and unfolding, rather than fixing and improving. If finding your word seems daunting, consider letting the word find you. If nothing jumps out at you, you could take some time to write words that do come to mind. You could also search the internet. One suggestion is to ask yourself questions like: What do I need? What do I want? What do I need to focus on? What is the way? Here are some examples of words others have chosen: listen, home, wholeheartedness, patience, presence, blossom, soar, overcome, treasure, nourish, expect, release, finish, delight, follow, lead. Imagine how holding one of these words in front of you might change or expand the way you walk in the world.

You are invited to join me for a Second Hour on Sunday, January 13, where we will consider the question, “What does it mean to be a people of possibility?” Perhaps the conversation will help you identify a word and what it might open for you. I look forward to the opportunity to hear your thoughts.

In Love and Hope, Rev. Alice

CELEBRATE DIVERSITY

WINTER SOLSTICE AND IMBOLC CEREMONIES

Winter Solstice was celebrated on December 19th, 2018 with a group of 20 women gathering to honor the Yuletide tradition. The vision of Kate Wolverton, Marcy Moreland and Joyce Smandra was brought to light honoring the shortest day of the year. We celebrated by opening the Circle and calling the directions. We engaged in singing a song about the elements and experienced a meditation that led to meaningful reflections by everyone. We shared a wonderful meal together around the beautiful Yule log in the Center, created by Emma Mulvaney. Our Circle reconvened to include simple steps to Circle dancing and a ritual to Close the Circle. The group acknowledged the importance of Circle gatherings to honor the changing seasons of the year.

Imbolc, or Candlemas, marks the point on the Wheel of the year midway between the Winter Solstice and Spring Equinox. At UUCP, we will have an Imbolc Celebration Ritual on February 1, 2019, from 6:30-7:45 pm. This Celebration Ritual is offered to everyone that wishes to attend with all genders included. We will not have a meal but only a Ritual Gathering. Please RSVP through our Facebook page or call the church office at (850) 475-9077 or email at uucp@bellsouth.net.

From the Board....

It is interesting to reflect how our culture looks to December with anticipation of the Holidays and an expectation of cooler weather. However, when January and February deliver colder temperatures, we often become less tolerant. We don't always acknowledge the subtle return of the sun to longer days. At times our Church changes without our conscious awareness as well. Plan to attend the January 27th Mid-Year Congregational meeting to perhaps increase your awareness of the commitment and changes that are occurring.

Rev. Alice Syltie participated in our Board Meeting in December. She was able to observe and understand more clearly how our Board functions and addresses the needs of the Congregation. It was a pleasure to have her interphase with us while providing suggestions and resources.

The Safety Team is hard at work looking for ways to make the church building, grounds and congregants physically and emotionally safer. Board members heading this mission are Kate Wolverton and Lisa Hudson. The CRE department, with Pam Levitt and Emma Mulvaney serving as "gentle determined prods," push for increased safety and forward thinking to establish safety protocols for the children. Thus...waking all of us up to the reality of establishing plans and protocols for safety besides the old way of thinking...when perhaps it seemed that we needed nothing more than to have a fire escape plan.

The Mid-Year Congregational Meeting will be Sunday, January 27th at 11:30 am. At that time, we will review the activities of the congregation inside and outside the church. In addition, we will review our financial status as faithful stewards to our congregation. This gathering gives us an opportunity to look ahead and spark creativity in serving our community.

In appreciation of the Board,

Nancy Hagman, UUCP President

Did You Know?

There are worker bees...that gave a facelift and make-over to the office. It makes the space more efficient, uncluttered and overall, an improved working environment. Thanks to Laurie Winterberg, Marcy Moreland and Charlie Steed.

A laptop computer was donated by an anonymous donor to allow our administrative assistant to access work more efficiently. (You are my heroes! A million thanks for your support and generosity!)

Pam Levitt and her children, Valerie and Will, remodeled the nursery and did much-needed deep cleaning...many thanks.

Since Reverend Syltie speaks about twice a month, the other services are designed by the creative minds of the Sunday Services team. It has many volunteers led by Marylee Donnelly and Bob Ortiz. Service Leaders volunteer and work closely with Terra Shute to create the Orders of Service.

Terra Shute, as Office Administrator, serves our congregation in many capacities. Due to her willing personality she often extends her services beyond her position. Please consider this in making requests and accept her "no" when necessary.

Watch to see what appears in the parking lot and around the building to increase safety and security, thanks to the Safety Team headed by Kate Wolverton and Lisa Hudson.

The Buildings and Grounds Team, headed by Gerry and Marylee Donnelly, is working to increase the visibility of our church. Two large wooden posts are temporarily in the back, which will (hopefully) be transformed into signs in the front and back entrance. Watch to see what comes...

Minister: Rev Alice Syltie is available for congregant calls or visits.

Announcements: If you want to have something announced from the front pulpit on Sunday, please write it on a notecard or paper and leave it on the podium before the church service.

HO, HO, Oh, Happy New Year!

And what a great year 2018 was. We have had a fabulous year in RE with trips to both Temple Beth El and Chua Dieu De Temple and more are planned for the new year. And don't forget about our Game Day last fall. Our Winter Holiday Party was a big hit with 14 kids attending!

Guest at Your Table

UUSC is a 78-year-old human rights organization grounded in Unitarian Universalist values and founded to support refugees and political dissidents fleeing Nazi Germany. Through research, advocacy, and partnerships with innovative grassroots organizations, UUSC advances human rights in the United States and around the globe.

For decades, Guest at Your Table has been introducing Unitarian Universalists to real people impacted by human rights issues – and to grassroots leaders making a difference around the globe. Whether you use our simple cardboard box or simply share these powerful stories around your table, (see materials in UUCP foyer) thank you for being a part of this UU tradition! This year, our Guest at Your Table theme is Justice Across Borders. In particular, we are turning our attention to the thousands of Central Americans fleeing violence in their home countries and making the perilous journey north in hopes of finding refuge in the United States.

"Guest at Your Table" UUSC Donations COLLECTED Jan. 6 and 13. Please add up your personal donation, write a check made out to UUSC, put GAYT in the memo space and place in the general offering basket.

We Need Buildings & Grounds Leaders

Just as your own home needs you to keep an eye out for problems before they get out of hand, we need people to help here at 9888. Don't worry, you don't have to do the work yourself – we just need people to take on the responsibility of monitoring the condition of the property and seeing what needs to be done to keep it in good condition.

If the whole enchilada seems intimidating, take on just one area, for example:

KITCHEN:

- Keep track of maintenance of new equipment
- Arrange for maintenance of fire suppressors and extinguishers
- Arrange for grease trap cleaning
- Monitor needs of dishwasher
- Check filters for stove hood and fans

BUILDING & GROUNDS:

- Heating and A/C maintenance
- Roof
- Landscaping
- Plumbing
- Insurance

We can provide a check list to get you started. Our building needs us! Can you help?
Maryleedonnelly914@hotmail.com.

We Need Kitchen Help

The new kitchen needs help! Are you willing? We have a few dedicated workers who set up the snacks and coffee each Sunday and clean up afterward – and they need help! No long-term commitment required, consider signing up for just a Sunday or two.

This is not a difficult job if we work together. You'll enjoy the fellowship and appreciate the wonderful, newly remodeled kitchen. The Sign-up Sheet is in the kitchen, or ask Barbara Goggins how you can help.

Stewardship

The seventh principle of the Unitarian Universalist Principles and Purposes asserts "respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part." Stewardship means taking care of something we value and enabling it to grow. It calls us to take responsibility and to make a contribution of our time, talent, and/or treasure.

“We are all connected to the earth...to all other human beings, to the spinning world, moon, stars, planets, and sun. We are part of a web. If part of this web is broken, the whole is diminished. We live in and by our web of loves and relationships, each lending support and strength to the other.”

“The image of stewardship draws together the many threads of this web: the earth upon which we live, the elements of community we value, and the institutions that forward our values and provide services we think are important. Stewards are caretakers with a forward vision. They hold something in trust. They ensure that it will be there in the future for the benefit of others. Successful stewards not only protect, but help something to improve and grow. Their actions are empowering. This is true regardless of whether we are stewards of the earth, institutions, people, or our Unitarian Universalist faith.”

LUUNCH BUUNCH Wednesday, Jan. 9

For January's second Wednesday, the 9th, everyone will hopefully be back in eating trim from Xmas goodies, and we will make a return visit to 5 Sisters Blues Café. (Was "Blues" in the name on our visit 3-4 years ago?) 5SBC is now part of a local conglomerate, Great Southern Restaurants (or similar). The address is still 421 West Belmont St. (southeast corner, Belmont and De Villiers), phone 912-4856. The ambiance seemed less "brick wall-ish" than last we visited, quieter - over the two minutes I stepped inside. The food was good then, menu still interesting, and the parking ample east of DV along Belmont. And while you're in the neighborhood, note the substantial number of new apartments (gentrification?). ... But before that, let me know your likely desires for 1PM, Wednesday on 9 January. (huturn@juno.com/ 478-2373)

The warmish Wednesday 12/12/18 found 13 of us at South Market, some after exceeding their usual exploratory skills to find the parking lot of the "easy to find but hard to get to" South Market, where the most visible part of the decor is the insulation blown under the roof. And where the sound system insisted on staying on after we were the only ones in the place, 2 PM+. But the main thing, all enjoyed their food, and the close company, having bunched up for 6 and eventually expanding to 13. The soup du jour was good (with hopes the richness doesn't ail us later), and the salad likewise. Over half seemed to finish their order, probably meaning the servings were on the frugal side. But not the tip, 20% for all.

LET'S GET Together

CIRCLE DINNERS-HAVE YOU UU JOINED YET?

Do you want to get to know other UUs? How about enjoying some adult conversation or a stimulating evening? Circle Dinners are your answer.

Circle Dinners align with UU principles affirming human worth, dignity, compassion, and acceptance of one another. Plus, they're fun! The company's great — and so is the food! They are a wonderful opportunity to meet and get to know your fellow UUs.

Circle Dinners begin with a "UUCP Circle Dinner Meet & Greet Party" on January 26 at 4pm followed by dinners in February, March, and April. Participants will each have an opportunity to host one month and provide a main dish. Others provide salad/vegetables or dessert/bread. The host will decide on a convenient date by conferring with those assigned. The six assigned people will provide the food, and the host may invite two new UU members or others from the church he or she would like to get to know better. This means there could be six, eight or more adults participating.

Singles as well as couples are encouraged to join. Substitutes are always needed. Should you be interested in participating — as a regular or a substitute — just indicate on the sign-up sheet in the foyer!

You will be contacted with information concerning the "UUCP Circle Dinner Meet & Greet Kickoff Party" and a schedule in late January. I hope to see you there!

If you are unable to participate in the "Meet & Greet" in January, you are still invited to join our group. Any questions or to sign-up, call/text Linda Cobb at 850-501-3186 or email Lindawcobb@gmail.com.*

DONATIONS TO UUCP OR TO UUCP CHARITABLE TRUST— WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Many times, those of us involved with the finances of the church receive questions about the difference between donating to the Church or donating to the Charitable Trust. The answer is that it depends on what you want to accomplish.

If you want to have your donation (outside of your normal pledge) to be used to accomplish some immediate need of the church, then you probably would want to make your donation to the church. For example, when the church had to repair and upgrade the ladies' bathroom because of unanticipated expenses with the kitchen renovation, some members made extra donations to the church's account for Building and Grounds so that the church board did not have to request funds from the Trust, as these expenses were not in the church's current budget. Or if a deceased family member had asked that donations be made to the church to enhance the church's current music program or the kitchen, sound system speakers, landscaping, etc. (in other words, some immediate need), then the donation should be made to the church (UUCP) and it should include a notation as to how it should be used.

If you want your donation to benefit the church long-term and in a perpetual fashion, then you should make your donation to the UUCP Charitable Trust. A donation to the UUCP Charitable Trust goes into the Endowment Fund where it is invested in stocks. The Endowment Fund earns interest/dividends which are available to the Church Board to spend if needed. The long-term hope is that the Endowment Fund will build over years so that it earns a significant amount of interest/dividends each year, so the church won't have to rely on pledges or fund-raisers as heavily as it does currently. The Charitable Trust has grown significantly when members' donations were made to the Trust following their death. Also, many times family members suggest donations to the deceased member's church and don't really have a special purpose in mind—in these cases, it is most appropriate to make the donation to the Charitable Trust. For info, the Charitable Trust currently has about $300,000 invested and the amount of interest funds currently available to the church is about $40,000, which is a cumulative amount that has occurred because the church has not tapped the Trust each year for funds. Annually, the interest earned is about $8,000 depending upon the whims of the Stock Market.

If you have questions, please contact Erin Renfroe, Church Treasurer or any one of the Trustees for the UUCP Charitable Trust: Marcy Moreland, Chair; Treasurer, Gerry Donnelly; Secretary, Georgianna Bryant; or the Trustees, Bob Gerold and Erin Renfroe.

Unitarian Universalist Justice Florida Bending Florida toward Justice

Unitarian Universalist Justice Florida (UUJF) is a UU State Action Network that selects issues for action by polling UUs in Florida, who are engaged with the network. For years, Climate Change has been one of the UUJF priority action issues. In 2018 Environmental Justice emerged as a top concern.

In 2015, UUJF partnered with the Florida Council of Churches and others to form the Florida Interfaith Climate Actions Network \(FL-iCAN!\). The mission of this group is to bring people together to address Florida's unique climate challenges. Affiliates of (FL-iCAN!) include: The Climate Mobilization, The Connection Partners, Florida Council of Churches, Florida Coalition for Peace and Justice, and Southern Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends \(Quakers\).

UUJF has contributed programming for the Annual Assemblies over the years. Last year, the UUJF Climate Resilience Ministry was able to bring Crystal Johnson (Dunbar, Ft. Myers) and Lawanna Gelzer (Parramore, Orlando) to speak. Their interaction helped us to understand that fellowship among frontline leaders restores hope and reenergizes leaders to return to the fight.

UUJF's Climate Resilience Ministry has shared information about Climate Justice and Environmental Justice developed by the UU Ministry for Earth, and has worked to prepare UUs to serve as allies in low income communities with environmental challenges. The Fund for UU Social Responsibility has funded these efforts that build community capacity to address difficult issues. UUJF's Climate Resilience Ministry contributes to the Florida UUs for Climate & Environmental Justice Group on UU Ministry for Earth's Create Climate Justice online collaborative platform.

Leaders from communities where heat, extreme precipitation, and more severe hurricanes exacerbate systemic inequities will share their challenges and success stories at the "Climate Impact & Environmental Inequity: Towards Justice for All", the Florida Interfaith Climate Actions Network's fifth annual assembly. We will work to find common themes and to draft language to submit to state legislators who have expressed a
